seARTS MISSION

seARTS cultivates Cape Ann's position as a world-class center for working artists. The organization collaborates with artists, arts organizations, patrons, municipalities, businesses to build beneficial "sustainable" partnerships that strengthen the cultural economy of Cape Ann, promote Cape Ann's thriving arts, cultural institutions and programs, and support the creative process.

To inquire about membership, contact us at info@searts.org. Sign up for free arts and cultural events e-newsblasts at www.searts.org.

seARTS would like to thank the community for making Gloucester #3 in the Top 100 Art City "Small Cities" category in American Style magazine! Voting for 2012 begins in December—watch your eblast for more information, and vote us in again in 2012.

Save these dates for upcoming arts and cultural events:

- October 1 Folly Cove Designers Fall Symposium, Cape Ann Museum
- October 5 Annual Art Auction, Sawyer Free Library – Live
- October 8-10 Cape Ann Artisans 28th Annual Artisans Studio Tour
